SUBJECT: CONAKRY 1500 EAC MEETING - DECEMBER 24, 2008

11. (U) Charge Raspolic convened an Emergency Action Committee (EAC) on December 24, 2008 at 0830 for an update on the current security situation in Guinea. EAC members present included CDA, DCM, RSO, CONS, DAO, IMO, MGT, PAO, POL/ECON, RAO, AID, and Peace Corps.

12. (U) The EAC again reviewed post's security posture and determined:

- 1A. Gbessia Airport is still operating on a regular schedule.
- 1B. Air France flights have been cancelled for today and diverted to Dakar.
- 1C. Air Brussels and Air Senegal have cancelled their flights.
- 1D. Embassy is still open to essential American Staff.
- 1E. Local Guard Force, residential and facilities are fully staffed.
- 1F. Key traffic routes within the city are still open.
- 1G. Traffic is circulating through Castro Bridge and KM36 city limits.

13. (U) The EAC decided to:

- 1A. Maintain increased security patrols around residences, Mission facilities and vehicle routes used by Mission staff.
- 1B. Cancel holiday gatherings on 12/25/2008 - 12/26/2008. RSO will revisit scheduled celebration on 12/27/2008 and determine security situation prior to event.
- 1C. Post will communicate via Handheld Radio and mobile telephones updates as needed.

14. (U) Unless the situation dictates otherwise, the next EAC is scheduled for the morning of December 29, 2008. No direct threat to American or Foreign citizens has occurred, and post does not believe voluntary or authorized departure warrants consideration at this point.
